

Corrections Chaplaincy

The Chaplains Commission of the North American Mission Board, SBC endorses chaplains to the following categories: community services, corporate, corrections, disaster relief, healthcare, military, and public safety.

General Endorsement Requirements

When employing vocational or volunteer chaplains, each institutional agency and organization sets specific requirements for their hiring criteria. In addition, the Southern Baptist Convention has its own denominational requirements for endorsing chaplains. All chaplains endorsed by the SBC must meet these minimum requirements:

- Demonstrate the call, competence, and character for ministry as a chaplain.
  - The applicant must demonstrate a call to the ministry. This involves not only the written communication, but actions showing a personal commitment to Christian ministry.
  - The applicant must have proven character in line with his/her call to chaplain ministry. Chaplains are expected to live their personal and professional lives with the highest practice of integrity in accordance with the Chaplaincy Code of Conduct. A chaplain's personal character must be consistent with the spiritual leadership required to work with people.
  - Background Check that includes credit, criminal, and sexual offenses.
- Be affiliated with the SBC for a minimum of one year and a member in good standing of a church affiliated with the Southern Baptist Convention for at least six months. All endorsed chaplains are expected to maintain membership in a Southern Baptist church and develop an accountability relationship with a Southern Baptist church. This accountability should relate to the chaplain's personal life as well as their exercise of ministry in their ministry context.
- References including one from applicant's SBC Pastor or Director of Missions.
- For vocational chaplains, be commissioned, licensed, or ordained by an SBC church or church of like faith recognized by the applicant's current church. This recognizes the role of the local church in affirming the ministry of the applicant.
- Have theological beliefs currently adopted by the SBC as represented in the 2000 Baptist Faith and Message. Additionally, applicants and endorsed chaplains are to affirm compliance and support of the following policies:
  - Divorced people will rarely, and only under unusual circumstances, be appointed, approved or endorsed for SBC mission service. Persons with a history of divorce will be evaluated with grace and mercy on an individual basis in accordance with NAMB policy.
  - Abstaining from the consumption of any alcoholic beverage or illegal drugs.
- Have a theological training consistent with their projected ministry assignment. A Master of Divinity degree is often required for vocational chaplains. However, all chaplains are expected to have either some accredited theological education or to be currently in the process of pursuing a theological education or actively engaged in chaplain-specific training.

- Meet requirements of employing agency – The Chaplain Commission will not endorse a chaplain who does not meet the requirements of the employing agency.
- Approval by the Chaplains Commission

All chaplain endorsements are to a specific ministry position. Any change in that position will require an update or additional endorsement. It is the responsibility of the chaplain to initiate the process for updating an endorsement. After notifying the SBC Chaplaincy Team, at least four weeks should be allowed for the update endorsement process.

Any exception to these basic qualifications/requirements must be approved by the Chaplains Commission.

Corrections Chaplain

Chaplains for incarcerated persons are involved in prisons and jails at all levels of the government (federal, state, county, and city) and with private corrections companies. Correctional chaplains serve in adult and juvenile facilities. In addition to SBC General Endorsement Requirements, the minimum qualifications of Correctional Chaplains vary according to the type of confinement facility and state.

Local and County Facilities

Chaplains at local confinement facilities are usually volunteers. The local facilities set their own requirements, and they are often minimal. Formal theological education and ordination are often not required. A background check is expected. Those desiring to provide ministry in these situations should consult with the local authorities for requirements.

State Facilities

Most chaplains at state prisons are required to have a theological degree, including at least 75 semester hours of college. Experience is often credited for some educational requirements. After employment, two units of Clinical Pastoral Education may be required for promotion.

U.S. Federal Bureau of Prisons

Requirements for those desiring to work at federal correction facilities are more comprehensive:

- Ordained Minister by or recognized by a SBC Church.
- Valid endorsement from the SBC Chaplains Commission.
- The normal age limit to apply is 37. Exceptions are made based on experience.
- Citizen of the United States.
- Undergraduate degree from an accredited institution.
- Master of Divinity/Theology degree or the equivalent education from an American Theological School (ATS) accredited residential seminary or school of theology: 20 graduate hours of theology; 20 graduate hours of sacred writings; 20 graduate hours of church history or comparative religions; and 20 graduate hours of ministry courses. One unit of Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) and one year of CPE Residency, ordination, plus ecclesiastical endorsement.

- At least 2 years of autonomous experience as a religious/spiritual leader in a church or specialized ministry setting. Clinical Pastoral Education may satisfy up to one year of experience.
- Pass a background investigation.
- Pass physical requirements and examination by the Federal Bureau of Prisons.

Withdrawal of Endorsement

Each applicant submitting an application for denominational endorsement by the Chaplains Commission signs the following agreement to assure the Chaplains Commission of the applicant's understanding, acceptance, and willingness to cooperate in carrying out the Commission's policies and purposes. The statement reads:

“In making this application, I recognize the Chaplains Commission, SBC, of the North American Mission Board, SBC, to be the agency designated by the Southern Baptist Convention to endorse chaplains and counselors in ministry to military and civilian agencies and agree to cooperate with the Chaplains

In the event that an endorsed chaplain violates a law (local, state, federal, including Uniform Code of Military Justice), agency policy, SBC general expectation, Chaplaincy Code of Conduct, personal or professional ethic, or should there be an embarrassment to the cause of SBC chaplaincy, disciplinary action may be in order. The Chaplains Commission desires that justice, grace, and mercy be exercised in all situations with the goal being personal redemption and restoration. However, withdrawal of endorsement may result from any situation deemed by the Chaplains Commission to warrant such action.
